

AESS Young Professional (YP) Representative (YPR)

Conditions of Eligibility:

- 1) IEEE member in good standing who also maintains membership in IEEE Young Professionals (within 15 years of first degree)
- 2) IEEE AES Society member during tenure
- 3) Endorsed by IEEE AESS member

Selection and Term of Office:

- 1) Nominations may be solicited from the current AESS Board of Governors (BoG), should the President choose to do so.
- 2) The President appoints the YPR for a 2-year term, renewable once starting January 1 each year.

Role:

The AESS YPR serves to encourage and enhance the participation and representation of Young Professionals within the Aerospace & Electronic Systems Society.

- 1) Motivate and lead YPs in organizing new/creative AESS-relevant activities.
- 2) Encourage YPs to influence and invigorate AESS chapter activities.
- 3) Contribute to the implementation and promotion of the AESS mentoring scheme.
- 4) Encourage AESS conference activities that recognize and support YPs.
- 5) Identify AESS YPs willing to support society activities and coordinate their efforts.
- 6) Report on AESS-related YPR activities at each AESS BoG meeting.
- 7) Sustain regular dialogue between AESS BoG and YPs.
- 8) Engage with YP activity leaders in TAB and MGA.
- 9) Actively seek feedback on the professional needs/aspirations of AESS YPs.
- 10) Make relevant society information /news available to YPs and YP affinity groups.
- 11) Encourage and assist YPs in achieving IEEE Senior Member status.
- 12) Collaborate with the Society's student representatives.

Expected Meeting Attendance:

- 1) Attend two IEEE AESS BoG meetings during the year, one in the spring and one in the fall.
- 2) Serve as a non-voting member of the Board of Governors.
- 3) Participate in online meetings and teleconferences as needed.