

AESS Region 8 Chapter Summit

October 17, 2019

Joe Fabrizio, President, IEEE AESS

Why we are here?

Motivation

AESS Chapters represent primary interface to Members and wider AESS community. A strong connection between the AESS Board of Governors and AESS Chapter Chairs is essential to implement effective initiatives and to maintain an active chapter.

Regional Chapter Summit

- Networking opportunity for AESS Chapters Chairs and Board of Governors
- Opportunity to receive information on recently introduced AESS initiatives
- Guidance on how chapters and members can benefit from these initiatives

Two-way communication

- Opportunity for AESS board to field questions you have and receive your feedback.

Why a regional summit?

Regional Concept

- New Regional concept
- Capitalize being in the area
- Pilot for other regions

Smaller Group

- Better focus
- Individual attention
- Getting to know you

Workshop Approach

- Round-table discussions
- One on one networking
- Interactive sessions

AESS Drivers

Better serving the needs of Industry

Attracting and engaging younger members

Reaching out to underrepresented regions

AESS Initiatives

AESS Short Course Initiative

- Opportunity to raise substantial surplus to support Chapter activities.
- Learn how your Chapter can host a Short Course.

AESS Professional Networking and Mentoring Program

- a structured program that helps to connect students and young professionals with more experienced AESS members for a two-way exchange.

AESS Awards Program

- become more familiar with the AESS Awards Program so your Chapter members can be nominated for well-deserved awards.

AESS Technical Panels

- Promote engagement with the Technical Panels of the AESS, to stay current with our technical fields of interest.

AESS Conferences & Publications

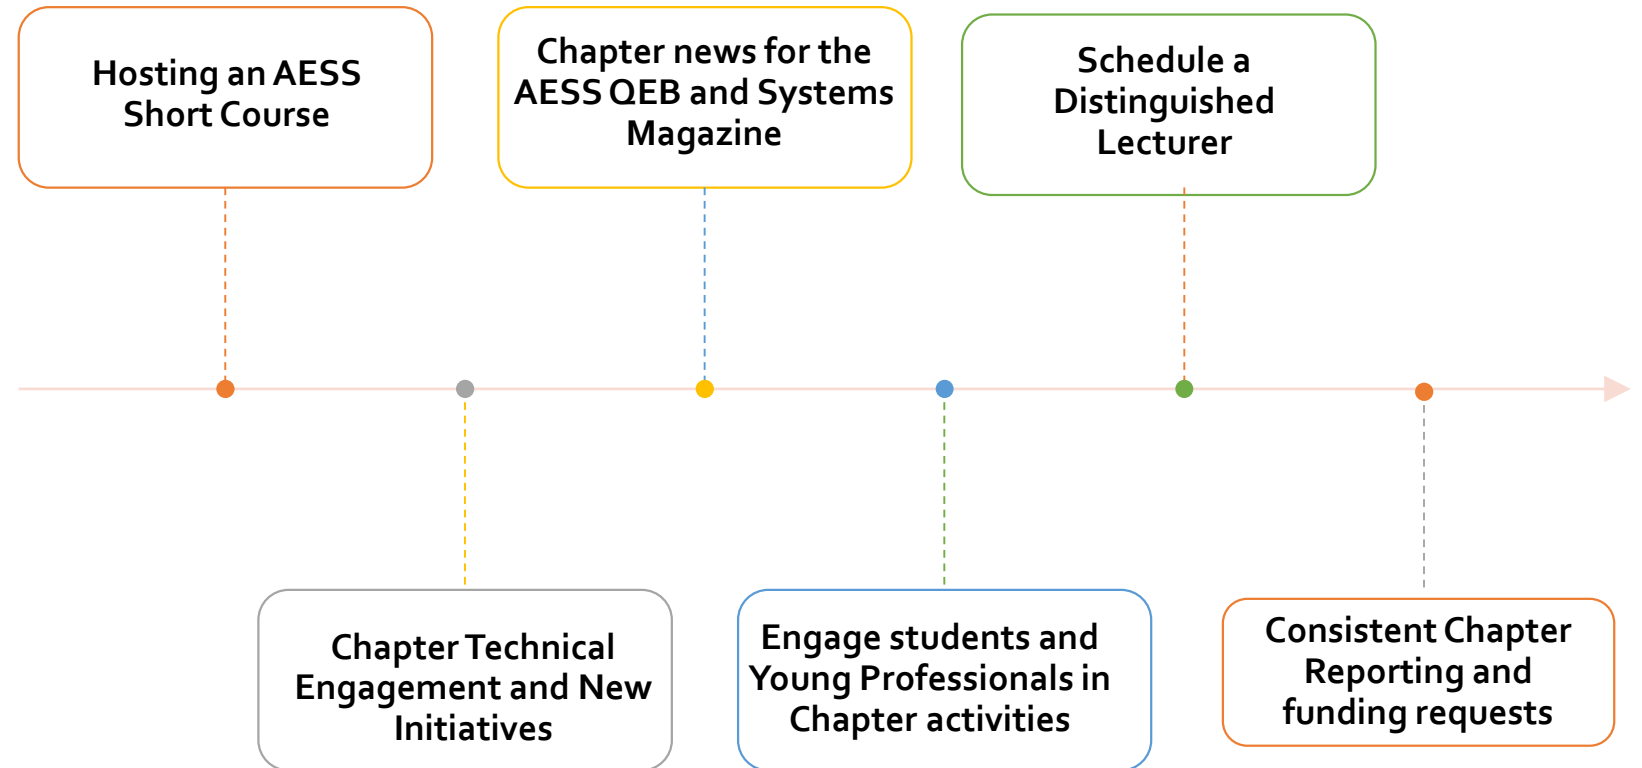

- Participate in vibrant AESS Conference scene.
- keep current on the changing landscape of IEEE Publications

AESS Resource Center

- A one stop shop for AESS Publications, Education, Research Tools, and Data
- Tailored to support the educational, career, and research needs of AESS members
- Video Tutorials with Assessments

Meeting Outcomes...

Maintaining a healthy and active AESS Chapter

IEEE EAB
Society
Professional Development
Award

IEEE AESS
Winner of the 2019
IEEE Educational Activities Board
Society Professional Development
Award

"For offering inspiring and comprehensive educational programs and innovative professional development opportunities to the IEEE community."

IEEE HISTORIC
MILESTONE
Christian
Hülsmeyer:
Invention and Demonstration of Radar, 1904

Saturday, October 19, 2019, at the site of the historic event in Köln (Cologne), Germany we will see the ceremonial inauguration of an IEEE Historic Milestone recognizing the invention and demonstration of radar by Christian Hülsmeyer, in Germany in 1904.

Meeting Agenda Topics

- Session 1 – AESS New Initiatives
 - Short Course Initiative
- Session 2 – AESS Services for Members
 - The AESS Educational Resources
 - Challenges and opportunities for Chapters
- Session 3 – Inputs from AESS Chapters
 - Chapters needs/ suggestions/ issues
- Session 4 – AESS Technical Offerings
 - Publication news and how Chapters can contribute
 - Role of Chapters in Conferences organization
 - Energizing the Technical Panels of the AESS
- Session 5 – AESS for Students and Young Professionals
 - Young Professional Program
 - Students Initiatives and opportunities
 - Professional Networking and Mentoring Program
- Session 6 – Closing remarks
 - Guidelines for submitting reports and funding requests

AESS Chapter Summit Speakers

Joe Fabrizio,
President

Walt Downing,
President-Elect

Fabiola Colone,
VP Member Services

Stefano Corallupi,
Chair, AESS Short Course

Lorenzo Lo Monte,
VP Education

Maria Sabrina Greco,
VP Publications

Michael Braasch,
VP Conferences

George Schmidt,
VP Technical Operations

Francesca Filippini,
Chair, AESS Mentoring

Bob Rassa,
Treasurer

Help and Follow-up

Fabiola Colone,
VP Member Services
fabiola.colone@uniroma1.it

Judy Scharmman,
AESS Executive Assistant
j.scharmman@conferencecatalysts.com