▶ Strengths:
- Impact factor of the Magazine has grown from 0.771 to 1.594 over the past five years
- Impact factor of the Transactions has grown from 1.975 to 4.102 over the past five years
- Timeliness of TAES has improved from 83.5 to 36.8 avg weeks for submission to publication

▶ Weaknesses:
- Diversity of the Editorial Boards
- Identification of emerging areas of interest; especially related to Industry

▶ Opportunities:
- Collaborate with Industrial Relations to provide Magazine content such as interviews
- Collaborate with Technical Operations to work with Technical Panels to organize special issues/sections for the Magazine and Transactions
- Special issues in new OJSE Journal
- Coordination with Conferences?

▶ Threats:
- Not applicable. Publications seem to have been COVID agnostic unlike operations that normal require face to face interactions

Main Activities

- ▸ Please summarize your committees main activities
  - T-AES (Michael Rice)
  - AES Magazine (Daniel O'Hagan)
  - QEB (Francesca Filippini and Philipp Markiton)
  - Startup of OJSE (Dale Blair is the fisrt EiC)
  - Phase one proposal for T-RS (Sabrina Greco is leading)

  - Best Paper Awards
  - Special Issues and Sections
  - Complete transition to ScholarOne
  - Codify/update operations manual

Projects & Collaboration Opportunities

▸ Please list the any projects your society is currently implementing

- Currently no special projects are planned
- Working with Systems Council and SMC on launching OJSE
- T-RS is a multi-society/council proposal effort
- Potential projects
  - Special initiatives to promote emerging topics in publications and conferences
  - Leverage other committee efforts to increase diversity on the editorial board
  - Coordination between conferences and publications?
  - Coordination with industry relations

Motion(s)

Nothing planned.