AESS Short Course

- The Short Course committee worked in the first half of 2018 to get the process for the Short Course defined and documented. The website is available, <http://ieee-aess.org/aess-short-course>, along with the following resources:

Short Course Program Guide – a comprehensive guide for Chapter Chairs to organize a Short Course.

IEEE Travel Guidelines – a set of guidelines to follow for instructor travel.

IEEE vTools – Chapters in North America can set up payment through vTools.

IEEE vTools Set Up Payment Tutorial -

Advertising Flyer Example (Publisher File) – An example of advertising for the Short Course.

Budget Template – a template to guide in budget planning for the Short Course.

AESS Short Course

- The Short Course Committee developed a process document outlining the program with step-by-step instructions. This is posted on the AESS website at: <http://ieee-aess.org/aess-short-course>.
- This process document was circulated to all the AESS Chapter Chairs, asking for feedback. To date we have had positive responses from:
 - Wolfgang Koch – Germany Chapter
 - Shunjun Wu – Beijing Chapter
 - Jesus Garcia – Spain Section Chapter
 - Young K Kwag – Seoul Section Chapter
- We now have our 3rd Short Course scheduled! It will be held next week in Germany, at Fraunhofer, hosted by Wolfgang Koch and the Germany Chapter. Lorenzo Lo Monte will be presenting the course.

AESS Short Course Next Actions

- Invite selected AESS members to be an AESS Short Course Instructor.
 - Board of Governors
 - AESS Distinguished Lecturers
 - AESS Conference Tutorial presenters
- Vet additional Short Course instructors as needed.
 - Instructors chosen by a particular Chapter that are not in our Instructor list.
 - Applications that are submitted by AESS members.

AESS Short Course Next Actions

- Industry Relations Committee to survey industry training and education needs. The committee has a spreadsheet tracker started, but we need to formulate a strategy to implement findings.
- Work with interested Chapters to help them initiate a Short Course.
- Work with the AESS Chapter Chair coordinator to get information to Chapters in order to assist them in hosting a Short Course.
- Set up mechanism for completed short courses to report and post those reports to the AESS website and publish the reports in the next available QEB.
- Set up mechanism for recording short courses for the AESS Resource Center.
- Assign Short Course Committee for 2019.
